

The Second Prototype Paired Phi Spin System

is the decay of a photon in a magnetic field via right-hand spin into an electron (matter) and via left-hand spin into a positron (antimatter).

